CMD, IREDA urges Delhi University students to lead the charge against corruption

New Delhi, 04th November 2022

Indian Renewable Energy Development Agency Ltd. (IREDA) organized a speech competition today, at Satyawati College (Evening), University of Delhi, as a part of "Vigilance Awareness Week 2022." On this occasion, Shri Pradip Kumar Das, CMD, IREDA addressed students at the college in presence of Ms. Manisha Saxena, CVO, IREDA, Dr. Vijay Shankar Mishra, Principal, Satyawati College (Evening) and other senior officials.

CMD, IREDA mentioned the Hon'ble Prime Minister's address at Vigyan Bhawan on 3rd November, 2022, "the campaign of Vigilance Awareness Week is taking place to realise the dreams and aspirations of a corruption-free India and underlined its importance in the lives of every citizen." He added that IREDA is dedicated to "Zero Tolerance Against Corruption" and has taken all possible steps to combat corruption and improve accountability to the stakeholders of the company.

Shri Das emphasised that the battle against corruption should not be restricted to Vigilance Awareness Week and is not only a one-week affair. He stated that, as corruption obstructs nation progress, every citizen has a responsibility to combat it collectively. The students can serve as flag bearers in the fight against corruption, he continued.

CMD, IREDA urged the students to follow their dreams and not to overlook their areas of strength and interest. He inspired them to discover their self and work on what makes them happy. Shri Das also encouraged students to maintain good physical and mental health.
